

Help Squirt the Snake-necked turtle reach his last rock. Close your eyes and draw a row of arches to the last rock. Open your eyes and score a point for each rock you landed on.

Turtle Facts
 Turtles have webbed feet and live in or near water
 eg. Pig-nosed Turtle of the Northern Territory.
 Tortoises have stumpy feet instead of webs and live on land
 eg. Giant Galapagos Tortoise.

Repeat this five times fast without making a mistake: Does a Loggerhead Turtle lug logs on its head?

1. Many turtles die each year from eating _____ bags polluting the oceans.
2. The top half of a turtle's shell.
3. Sea turtles sometimes get caught in _____ nets drifting in the sea.
4. A turtle is what type of animal?
5. Green turtles eat seagrass and _____?
6. Another name for a long-necked turtle.
7. The largest marine turtle.

Turtle Alphabet
 A is for ancient, B is for beautiful, C is for carapace.
 Can you complete an A-Z of turtle-related words?

MAD about turtles

Turtle Facts
 Turtles' ancestors lived on land 200 million years ago. Sea turtles have changed little from those living 100 million years ago. The upper section of a turtle's shell is called a carapace, the bottom section is a plastron.

Weird and wonderful turtles
 The seven types of sea turtles have some weird names: Hawksbill, Loggerhead, Flatback, Green, Leatherback, Olive Ridley and Kemp's Ridley. Would a Leatherback Turtle wear a jacket and studs? Draw a turtle so it suits its name or draw a weird and wonderful looking turtle and give it a name..

